Utah National Parks

Awesome, magnificent, awe-inspiring – these are just a few adjectives to describe the five Utah National Parks and surrounding region viewed on this once-in-a-lifetime tour. This is a popular tour and for great reason. Zion, Bryce, Capitol Reef, Arches & Canyonlands National Parks contain some of the most stunning rock formations and landscapes in the world, and we take you up-close and immerse you in the history, culture and cuisine of the region.

Tour Highlights

- Zion National Park
- Bryce Canyon National Park
- Capitol Reef National Park
- Arches National Park
- Canyonlands National Park
- Navajo Lands jeep tour
- Horseshoe Bend Overlook & Hoop Dancing

Day 1 – Tucson to Las Vegas

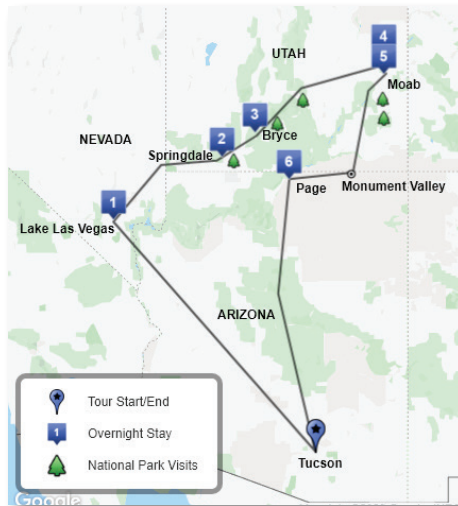

We stop in the charming town of Wickenburg, Arizona, for lunch at the Wickenburg Ranch Golf & Social Club. After, we venture on to stay in the Las Vegas area for the night and enjoy independent dinner. (L)

Day 2 – Zion

We travel on to Zion National Park in southwestern Utah, one of the nation’s oldest parks and known for spectacular canyons, colorful gorges and sheet rock walls. We lunch at the Zion Lodge and take a breathtaking tram tour of Zion National Park, in addition to exploring the park by coach. We stay overnight in Springdale at the Hampton Inn & Suites and enjoy a wonderful group dinner. (B,L,D)

Day 3 – Bryce Canyon

We depart the Zion area and head northeast to tour Bryce Canyon National Park. This park is famous for its unique geology, consisting of a series of horseshoe-shaped amphitheaters carved from the eastern edge of the Paunsaugunt Plateau. We have lunch at the Bryce Canyon Lodge, further tour Bryce, and then check into Ruby’s Inn for a overnight stay. (B,L)

Day 4 – Capitol Reef

This morning we head further northeast in Utah to Capitol Reef National Park to discover the sandstone formations, cliffs and canyons, and monocline. We check into the Red Cliffs Lodge in spectacular Moab for a two-night stay, situated at the foot of dramatic red rock cliffs and near the shore of the Colorado River. Tonight, we dine at the Lodge. (B,L,D)

Day 5 – Arches & Canyonlands

We head further east to tour both Arches and Canyonlands National Parks. Arches is home to over 2000 arches, spires, domes and fans that dazzle the eye and boggle the mind. Canyonlands is vast and breathtaking – Utah’s largest National Park – containing over 370,000 acres carved over millions of years. (B,L)

Day 6 – Monument Valley

This morning we check out of the Red Cliffs Lodge and head to the Four Corners area for more fantastic scenery. We travel through Monument Valley, a red-sand desert region on the Arizona-Utah border, known for the towering sandstone buttes of Monument

Valley Navajo Tribal Park. This afternoon we board jeeps that take us to famous Horseshoe Bend Overlook, with sculptured and colorful rock formations like no other in the world. We dine in Page and stay overnight at the Courtyard by Marriott. (B,L,D)

Day 7 – Flagstaff to Home

We stop in downtown Flagstaff for an independent lunch before heading back to Tucson. (B)
